For 30 Years

Many an honest dealer has to charge more than we do, because he paid too much himself.

Ignorance is less provoking than dishonesty, but IT COSTS YOU JUST AS MUCH.

Need we point the MORAL? When you come to us you get the BENEFIT OF WHAT WE KNOW.

Our stock, as usual, this season surpasses any other clothing stock in the state for VARIETY, QUALITY AND QUANTITY.

AN ENGINE DERAILED.

A Brick Placed on the Elm Grove Tracks in East Wheeling

WAS THE CAUSE OF AN ACCIDENT

That Might Have Been Worse Than the Reality—The Engine Very Nearly Goes Over an Embankment Onto the Baltimore & Ohio Tracks—A Boy, Unknown, Probably Put the Obstruction on the Tracks.

The unthinking recklessness, probably, of an unknown boy or boys, last evening nearly caused a disastrous accident on the Elm Grove road at the corner of Sixteenth and McColloch streets, in East Wheeling. Some one, from malicious intent or pure heedlessness, placed a brick on the motor tracks at that corner where the outgoing trains strike the down grade at the curve onto McColloch street. The 8 o'clock motor, as is usual, slowed up in taking the curve, but still with sufficient speed to leave the tracks, when the brick was struck. The engine turned sharply to the right after leaving the track and stopped only about three feet from the edge of the embankment, ten feet below which are the Baltimore & Ohio tracks. If the train had been going just a little faster the engine, at least, would have gone over and there would have been, probably, loss of life to relate.

None of the cars left the track, but the shaking up the passengers received made them believe that something worse than the reality had happened. As soon as possible General Manager Weisgerber was on the scene with an extra engine and in a few minutes the derailed engine had been replaced on the track, after which the train proceeded on out the line.

Belmont County Criminals.

Yesterday the criminals indicted by the Belmont county grand jury were arraigned at St. Clairsville. Mike King, of Belmont, had twelve indictments with two counts each, for selling liquor to minors. One count on each indictment was nolleed. He plead guilty to the others and was fined $300 and costs. Only two of the felons indicted plead guilty, Edward Winkler, for grand larceny, and was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary. Winkler told that he was addicted to the morphine and opium habit and was under the influence of the drug when he robbed his uncle of a box of jewelry. After the sentence was pronounced he broke down and wept. An attempt is being made to have the sentence set aside and only a fine and jail sentence imposed. Cameron Smith, of Bellair, charged with burglary, plead guilty. He was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. Smith robbed a box car four years ago, and stole all the household goods, even carpets, of one of his neighbors. He had been a fugitive ever since. The criminal cases are set for trial in the first two weeks after the election vacation.

To Workingmen and Business Men.

The leaders of the Free Trade Democracy, including President Cleveland and W. L. Wilson, have declared that the fight to tear down our tariff defenses has only begun. A vote for John A. Howard for Congress is a vote to renew the agitation, with all its accompanying business uncertainty and industrial depression. A vote for Captain Dovenor is a vote to save the country from a repetition of the misery which followed the inauguration of the assault on the tariff, and a vote for the Republican candidates for the legislature will mean the same thing.

At Clerk Hook's Office.

The last will and testament of Mary Armbruster was yesterday admitted to probate and ordered to be recorded. C. Joseph Baltzer qualified as executor, and gave bond in $1,500, with John A. Hess as surety.

Transfers of real estate were recorded as follows:

August 3 by Joseph C. Brady and wife to William Porter, for $500, about Acres of the Porter farm, out the National road, the coal underlying it being reserved.

October 29 by Rachel A. Russell to James Cummins, for $185, lot 88 in Zane's orchard addition, on the Island

THE BODY WAS NOT FOUND.

No New Light Yet Thrown on the Fate of John H. McCuskey.

Several reports were circulated yesterday as to the finding of the body of John H. McCuskey, the man who mysteriously disappeared Wednesday evening, mention of which was made in the INTELLIGENCER yesterday morning. The last known of him was at the Riverside tube works, where he was employed. When he left his work he did not take his dinner bucket and pay checks, and another workman took them to the office. When the night force went to work and he did not put in an appearance, a search was instituted, but did not have any result further than the finding of his hat on the river bank. He had been engaged in unloading waste near where the hat was found and the supposition was that he had committed suicide by drowning. The search in the river was continued yesterday, but without result. The river is rising and had he drowned himself the body would probably have floated down the river.

The drowning theory is not held by some familiar with the circumstances attending his disappearance, but they incline to the belief that he has wandered off somewhere and is still alive. In substantiation of their views the claim is made that at the place where the hat was found the water was so shallow that it would be impossible for a man to drown unless he lay down in the water.

The missing man has been acting peculiarly for some time past, an attack of fever having left him in a state of temporary mental aberration. Last Sunday, it is said, he dressed himself and told his family he was going to church. He came up town and proceeded to the jail, where he told the persons in charge that he was feeling peculiar and asked to be sent to Weston to the asylum. No attention was paid to him at the time, and it now looks as if he had a premonition of his approaching danger.

Look out for Democratic roorbacks, such as circulars and sensational publications in the Democratic organ intended to prejudice voters at the last minute against the Republican ticket. Late day publications of this nature will be the last resort of desperate party managers.
